

Connecticut Coalition of Interior Designers

2017 Membership Application/Renewal

Connecticut Coalition of Interior Designers...The unified legislative voice and administrative advocate for Interior Designers at the Connecticut Capitol for over 30 years ...

- Maintaining recognition of the Interior Design Profession in CT
- Protecting your independence and abilities as an Interior Designer
- Defending Interior Design Professional Standards
- Promoting a Consumer right of choice for Interior Design Consultants
- Representing Interior Designers on and Promoting Public Safety through the
  - Department of Public Safety's annual Design & Construction Industries Educational Conference Committee
  - Coalition for the Adoption of a Unified Code (CAUC)
  - CT Building Officials Training Council

CCID's contributions have ensured recognition of the Interior Design Profession with the Built Environment Community, Building & Fire Officials, Legislators, State Administrative Bodies as well as Allied Trade Associations. CCID's focus remains on maintaining the amended title of 'Registered Interior Designer' while continuing to recognize interior design professional qualifications through education, experience and examination. Through this the public, other Design Professionals, along with Building and Fire officials will be assured that the knowledge and application of Health, Safety, Welfare codes and regulations are properly adhered to within the scope of Interior Design Services.
